

The Lifeboat Girl

I'm off to see me darlin' Jen
She's hanging around the slipway again

*With yer blue eyes, sparkling deep sea blue eyes
Givin' the crew the old eye O
She wants a lifeboat man*

She heaved herself into the sea
Screamin' come on boys, come and rescue me

They launched the boat to save our Jen
It was full of handsome lifeboat men

They pulled our Jen out from the wet
And laid her right down on the deck

Then the lifeboat sailed from North to South
And the crew all gave her mouth to mouth

Then she hugged and kissed that handsome crew
The cook, engineer and cabin boy too,

He said to her Jen I saved yer life
Can I take yer home for to be my wife

She said thank you boys for me life you saved
But I'm already seein' to me coxain brave

Change last line of chorus to "She has her lifeboat man"
