

Admiral Lord Nelson

Who's five feet four and ten feet tall, Admiral Lord Nelson
Who put to sea and beat them all, Lord Nelson won the day
Born in Norfolk, parson's son, Admiral Lord Nelson
A sickly child but a chosen one, Lord Nelson won the day

Chorus:

So Bounce your cannon balls off the sea, Smash the hulls of your enemy
Two-six heave me boys, Lord Nelson won the day.

Skipper of the Bellaphon '84, Admiral Lord Nelson
Married on Jamaica's shore, Lord Nelson won the day
On Calvi's strand he lost an eye, Admiral Lord Nelson
On Tenerife his arm did fly, Lord Nelson won the day

Chorus

At Aboukir the French he beat, Admiral Lord Nelson
He sailed round behind their fleet, Lord Nelson won the day
In '93 young Emma he met, Admiral Lord Nelson
His marriage vows he'd soon forget, Lord Nelson won the day

Chorus

He made his name at Trafalgar, Admiral Lord Nelson
Where the Dons and the French met Old Jack Tar, Lord Nelson won the day
A sniper from the French did shoot, Admiral Lord Nelson
The man who wore his full dress suit, Lord Nelson won the day

Chorus

In a barrel of brandy he came home, Admiral Lord Nelson
Left the seas our ships to roam, Lord Nelson won the day
